

1 Campelo

Campelo belonged since the reign of D. Sancho I to the Municipality of Miranda do Corvo. As of 1630, through the influence of Frei Gaspar de Campelo, master of the carmelite novices, on the Counts of Miranda do Corvo, the construction of a church began over the cliffs of the Chapel of Casal da Ponte. The new church was blessed by Frei Gaspar which offered the image of Nossa Senhora da Graça, who became the patroness of the parish. The village was named Campelo in honor of Frei Gaspar. Campelo is a part of the Municipality of Figueiró dos Vinhos since 1805.

2 Aguda

The historical occupation of what is today the territory of Aguda dates back to Roman times, near the village of Olival there are evidences of the existence of a roman villa. In 1209 D. Sancho I donated the Estate of Almofala to D.ª Maria Pais Ribeiro, confirmed fact by D. Afonso II in 1216. D. Manuel in 1514 confirmed the charter status conferring the title of Vila. It formed Aguda, along with Chão de Couce, Avelar, Pousaflores and Maças de Dona Maria, formed the judicial district of the "Cinco Vilas". Only in 1855, by statute of D. Pedro V, was Aguda merged with the municipality of Figueiró dos Vinhos.

3 Figueiró dos Vinhos e Bairradas

Established in 2013, in the context of the national administrative reform, it aggregated the former parishes of Figueiró dos Vinhos and Bairradas where joined. Having always belonged to the parish of Figueiró dos Vinhos, only in 1985, was Bairradas elevated to the status of parish. The village's name derives from the Moorish word Barrio, which means "uncultivated and unpopulated terrain, but has necessary conditions for its reconversion". Also the name Marvila, suggests this was the first locality of this parish.

4 Arega

Territory of ancient occupation, had its charter status bestowed in 1201 by D. Pedro Afonso. Filipe II of Spain donated its territory to D. Francisco de Melo, Marquess of Ferreira, first Duke of Cadaval, in the context of the administrative reform of Mouzinho da Silveira, it was incorporated in the Municipality of Maças de D. Maria. Only in 1855 was Arega integrated in the Municipality of Figueiró dos Vinhos.

FIGUEIRÓ DOS VINHOS

In 1135, Figueiró dos Vinhos was integrated in the Hereditate Petrogonum, a territory bestowed by D. Afonso Henriques. In 1200, King Sancho I granted his brother D. Pedro Afonso. The chief commander of the kingdom «alferes-mor», the Reguengo de Monsalude, a territory where the municipalities of Arega, Figueiró and Pedrogão were later founded. D. Pedro Afonso granted the Charter Status «Carta de Foral» to Figueiró in the year 1204 and in 1514 King Manuel I granted it a new Charter Status (already with the name Figueiró dos Vinhos).
